

Care Beyond the Surgery: how social prescribing and supported self care can save you time and money

Wednesday 24 November

10am to 3pm (lunch provided) or drop in 12.30 to 2pm for the lunch and the basics!

Bath Royal Literary and Scientific Institute Queens Square, Bath

This event will demonstrate how and why social prescribing works through presentations, research findings and lots more.

Social prescribing is a formal way of enabling primary care services to refer patients with social or emotional needs to a range of local non-clinical services and support.

Chaired by Dr Phil Hammond

- Local social prescribing projects: Developing Health and Independence, in South Gloucestershire, and New Routes at The Care Forum, in Keynsham
- Village Agents in the Chew Valley, Bath and North East Somerset
- Alex McNeil from The Really Useful Learning Company
- A GP's perspective by Dr Richard Berkley at the Orchard Medical Centre
